2. Briefly stated, the case of the Applicant is as follows:-

The Applicant was working as a driver with the Opponent since 15-3-2003 and his service records were honest and unblemished with no adverse entries. The Applicant was issued a show cause-cum-charge sheet dated 19-3-2018 invoking sub-clauses 1.7, 1.10 of the Certified Standing Orders for alleged assault on the helper, Shri Hanumant Pal. The workman filed a reply after which a departmental enquiry was held and the workman participated in the said enquiry without any knowledge of the procedure which was conducted in gross violation of principles of natural justice. The workman was charge sheeted for alleged assault on the co-worker who has not been examined in the course of the departmental enquiry. The workman was not suspended during the pendency of the enquiry and was discharging his duties from 19-3-2018 till 14-6-2016, the date of dismissal from service. The workman was unemployed from the date of dismissal till date. He has approached several offices for employment but

3. The Opponent filed a written statement inter-alia contending that the Opponent is engaged in manufacture of printed paper book cartons for Colgate. The Applicant was appointed on probation as a driver and was entrusted with the work of driving the transport of goods vehicle of the Opponent for delivery of the goods. The Opponent has employed about 145 workmen on permanent basis and if the manufacturing activities are closed, all the workers would be jobless. The Applicant on 7-2-2018 assaulted Shri Hanumant Pal within the premises of client Company. The Applicant was kept idle at the establishment as there was no work of driving to be provided to the Applicant as the client company
